²² At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter,
²³ and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the colonnade of Solomon. ²⁴ So the Jews gathered around him and said to him,
“How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.”

A shepherd wearing a wide-brimmed hat and a dark coat is walking through a flock of sheep in a field. The scene is dimly lit, possibly at dawn or dusk, with a soft, hazy background. The sheep are clustered around the shepherd, and he appears to be guiding them. The overall mood is peaceful and pastoral.

²⁵ Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me, ²⁶ but you do not believe because you are not among my sheep. ²⁷ My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

²⁸I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one.”

I HAVE A VERY PARTICULAR SET OF SKILLS

A shepherd wearing a wide-brimmed hat and a dark jacket over a light shirt, walking through a flock of sheep in a field. The scene is dimly lit, possibly at dawn or dusk, with a soft, hazy background.

Christ's call is the basis for Christian faith and resulting obedience.

“Jesus calls people into being His, and He doesn't make mistakes.”

Eternal life for the Christian is eternal because it is based in the life of Christ.

Eternal life is not just a duration but a quality.

Our salvation is secure as God is strong.

The presence of Christ as Shepherd is your assurance of God's call, welcome,
and preservation.
