“Lessons in Betraying Jesus” by Judas, the son of Simon the Iscariot

- First, do NOT actually believe in Jesus.
- Second, find personal benefit from being with the Jesus people.
- Third, do not let anyone know your struggle is real.
- Four, accept darkness as your existence.

“Anyone Except Me, Lord: How I Came to Deny Jesus” by Simon, the one named Rock by Jesus.

- I never thought that I was capable of such sin.
- When someone warned me about the temptation they saw me dealing with, I didn't take Him seriously.
- Thankfully, Jesus was truly my Savior, but I would not want anyone to go through what I did because of my sin.

“Jesus loves me, this I know”
by a disciple loved by Jesus.

- Find your true identity in the love of God in Christ.
- Don't think more highly of yourself; instead, abide in Christ.
